Seeing... Ken Sklute is one of Canon's Explorers of Light, a designation shared by only 48 top photographers worldwide. During his 35 year photographic career, Ken has been named Photographer of the Year a total of 27 times between Arizona, New York, and California. In 2009, Ken was awarded the Photographer of the Year from the Professional Photographers of California.

Ken will be sharing his vision, concepts and ideas of how to begin to "see" the world around us in a new light and how to capture those visions with our camera. The day with Ken is sure to expand your own vision and help you learn to "see" beyond what you do now.
