Conference Investment Account will be set up in the following manner and with the following restrictions and guidelines implemented:

- A separate account to be established in the name of the PPW with Vanguard. Any change in authorized signers requires new corporate resolution and signers’ forms to be filed with Vanguard.
- Shall be managed conservatively as these funds will be needed to pay conference bills whenever a conference income isn’t sufficient. The Investment Manager has discretion for specific investment choices.
- Additions to the account will be deposited, at a minimum on a yearly basis, no later than July 1st. These additions will be derived from the proceeds of the Annual Educational Spring Conference (excluding Scholarship Auction Fundraiser) and will be split 80% to the Conference Investment Fund, 20% to PPW General Operating Funds Savings Account.
- The Board may authorize expenditure of investment income derived from the Education Conference Fund to support any PPW educational activities, such expenditure shall not exceed the investment income earned in the previous calendar year.
- In case of financial emergency, the Board may authorize expenditure of up to 10% of the principal to support PPW educational activities and the marketing of those activities. Such action shall require a vote in favor by 2/3 of the full membership of the Board.
- In the case of expenditure of Education Conference Fund money for any non-conference expense, at least 50% of net proceeds from the activities shall be returned to the Fund.
- The principal is not to be distributed, with the exception of the Conference Starter Loan and a financial emergency.
- The budget for the educational conferences should be presented to the Executive Board for approval, for all expenses including speaker’s fees, a hospitality gift, transportation costs and other anticipated expenses for all speakers and judges.
- The Executive Board has the authority to give a conference starter loan of 5% of the principle balance or 7.5% of the principle interest of the Conference Investment Account as of July 1st not to exceed $1,000.
- The Conference Starter Loan will be re-paid. In the event of a significant convention loss, the Executive Board can authorize that amount to be moved from the principle of the Conference Investment Account to deposit into the PPW General Operating Funds Account. In the event this action is necessary, the Conference Investment Account will not issue the Conference Starter Loan for a minimum of one year.

- Reimbursement of Conference Expenses is to occur within six (6) weeks after the Conference ends or any out of pocket expenses will not be reimbursed.

F.4.b Memorial Scholarship Fund

The Scholarship Fund Account shall be administered with the following restrictions and guidelines implemented:

- Scholarship amounts will be based specifically on the amount of interest by the Vanguard Memorial Scholarship Fund during the preceding year.
- The principle is not to be distributed.
- The remaining proceeds from the annual Scholarship Auction fundraiser will be added to the principle no later than July 1st. Additional funds shall be invested conservatively at the discretion of the Investment Manager.
- Any scholarships that expire will automatically return to the principal portion of the fund and will not be redistributed.
- The stated expiration date for scholarship awards to be within three years date of issue.
F.5 Immediate Past President Chairman of the Board

- Assist the incoming executive board in transition.
- Direct the planning of the Annual Educational Spring Conference during the year of service as the Immediate Past President Chairman of the Board. This may be serving as the Conference Chair or finding a volunteer to serve as Conference Chair and assisting them in their planning. Inform district members of upcoming PPW events, activities, classes, workshops, seminars and Annual Education Spring Conference and Print Salon dates and locations via meetings and correspondence.
- Be the official Board Liaison for the Annual Educational Spring Conference.
- Perform orientation with PPW District Reps. and the Education Chair regarding their responsibilities and duties.
- And coordinating with the Pro One Day Chair and Survey results for potential speakers and topics.
- Coordinate with Reps and Executive Manger to have Events listed on website and social media.
- Shall oversee as a point of contact of appointed Committees by the President.

F.5.a Past Presidents Council Meeting

Scope and Purpose: The PPW is a mature organization, with a lineage of Past Presidents who have given much to the organization. Each new president comes to the gavel with a new set of challenges and opportunities. Some are old situations that have been dealt with before. Some are new and indicative of the ever changing environment. This Council, and its annual meeting is a time for past presidents to be apprised of current situations and given the opportunity to share wisdom, knowledge, and their time to continue the mission and vision of the PPW.

Meeting Chairperson: Immediate Past President Chairman of the Board

Meeting Attendees: All those in attendance are all Past Presidents of the PPW, and the Current President who was just sworn in.

Meeting Date: The last morning of each Annual Spring Educational Conference. This would coincide with the morning after the swearing in of the new president for each year.

Place: To be coordinated with the Conference and Facilities chair for the conference. A room large enough to seat the past presidents in attendance (Approximately 10 - 15 members).

Time: During the allotted breakfast time on the conference agenda, allowing the attendees time to get to the morning program for that day. Meeting should be no more than 1 hour in length if possible.

Costs associated with this meeting: This should be a cost free meeting to the association. The attendees will participate in the conference meal plan and adjourn to the meeting space rather than eating with the other conference attendees. If there is no conference meal plan for that morning attendees a meal will be furnished at the reasonable expense of the member.
Agenda:

1) Opening Statement by Immediate Past President/Chairman of the Board. Thank yous and acknowledgements for those who supported them over the past year.
   • Explanation of meeting agenda. “To listen to the needs of the organization, the direction for the next year, and to extend support in the areas that the newly elected President and Board of Directors are in need of.”
   • Ask each member to stand and introduce themselves and the year(s) they served as president.
   • Introduce the President Elect.

2) President Elect explains the state of the organization.
   • Strengths, weaknesses, and challenges that the board is facing. Also, any agenda or dreams that they have for the board and general membership for the year.
   • Requests for assistance from past Presidents. What areas can the Past Presidents support the organization.

3) Immediate Past President/Chairman of the Board makes a call for assistance, mediates, and confirms the willingness to support.
   • Ask for assistance in various areas mentioned. Get volunteers for help. Ask for accountability in providing assistance.

4) Meeting Adjourned by Immediate Past President/Chairman of the Board.

H.19 Investment Manager Chair

To manage the investment of funds for four separate PPW accounts:

- Scholarship Fund
- Alma Gray Account
- Southwest District Account
- Convention Account

Responsibilities:

- The management of these accounts includes investing into securities which will grow as well as afford safety against loss. A conservative balance of investment positions is maintained with allocations to appropriate no-load mutual funds, seeking good rates of returns, while maintaining excellent interest and dividends each year.

- Management includes reporting to the PPW Treasurer and the Executive Manager the income earned each year as well as balances in each account.

- In addition, management includes completion and submission of proper paper work required by Vanguard when there is a change in PPW leadership requiring new signers on the account and / or new mailing address for statements.
J MEETING AGENDAS AND PROTOCOLS

J.1 Annual Business Meeting
The Annual meeting of the PPW shall be held during the first half of the year at a time and place fixed by the Board.

• Have a copy of the PPW Bylaws and the OPP to refer to if there are questions.
• Have the meeting “Agenda” printed with copies for the board.
• Post the agenda and the list of nominees for each office at each entrance to the meeting room. Often additional copies are printed for the membership.
• The Secretary should have a working tape recorder, enough tape and extra batteries.
• The parliamentarian is there to be sure the Roberts Rules of Order are followed during the meeting and for the election process.
• A Quorum, according to the Bylaws, must be present and stated in the minutes.
• All members in good standing may vote unless their membership status disqualifies them, as stated in the OPP Section B.1.

• The President:
  • Calls the meeting to order with a gavel
  • After the welcome, introduce the officers, Board, executive Manager, Conference chair and parliamentarian.
  • Thank everyone for attending this important meeting.
  • Ask the Secretary to read the minutes from the last Annual Meeting.
  • Ask for the Treasurers report.
  • Ask for the Executive Managers report.
  • Ask is there any Old Business, then any New Business.
  • At that time the Elections are conducted.
    • The ballot is presented for nominations of the officers, in printed form, from the nominating committee chairman and read by the secretary.
    • Each nominee should stand, be introduced and be recognized, say who they are, where they are from, a brief statement why they want to be elected.
    • Each office is presented one at a time. The President will ask two times if there are other nominations from the floor for each position.
      • Nominations from the floor may be made if the person is qualified in accordance with the Bylaws and OPP and the person is present or has given written permission to the nominator before nominations are closed, for Treasurer, for Secretary, for Vice, President or for President.
      • Then say: “nominations for (office) are closed.”
        • It is recommended that paper ballots be available for taking the vote in cases where more than one person nominated. Absentee ballots, if any are presented by the Executive Manager in a sealed envelope are counted only if there is a tie with paper ballots presented. Two people are appointed to count paper ballots.
        • If there is only one nomination for each office a motion for a “unanimous ballot” may be cast, if there are no objections and the motion is made and seconded, for that purpose, all in favor say Aye. All opposed, “Nay”. All abstained, “Aye”
        • Three ways to take a vote: By voice, hand raising or printed ballot.
      • Congratulations, they then are duly elected to the offices.

• If there is no further business, the meeting is adjourned.
• Close the meeting at the end with a tap of the gavel.

• Amendments to the Bylaws must be in written form and presented to the general membership ninety days before it can be voted on. The board cannot amend the Bylaws, only make recommendations.

J.2 Board Meetings
The PPW Board meets at least once every quarter in a calendar year at various locations in the State of WA.

• Written notice of the PPW Board meeting shall be e-mailed to each board member within 30 days prior to the meeting date.
• Notice will be sent by the PPW President for any special board meeting called by the PPW Board.

Treasurers Report
Proposed Motions
Old Business
Action Items from previous minutes
Any unfinished business from previous meetings
New Business
Board Recommendations
Bylaws Committee recommendations
Future Conference or Event Dates and Locations
Date and location for next Board meeting
Steps for using a consent agenda include:

- The President decides which items will be placed on the consent agenda. The consent agenda will appear as part of the normal meeting agenda.
- The Executive Manager distributes the consent agenda packet prior to board meeting for board members to read and review.
- At the beginning of the meeting, the President asks members if any of the consent agenda items should be moved to the regular discussion items.
- If a member requests that an item be moved, it must be moved. Any reason is sufficient to move an item. A member can move an item to discuss the item, to query the item, or to vote against it.
- Once the item has been moved, the President may decide to take up the matter immediately or move it to a discussion item.
- When there are no items to be moved or if all requested items have been moved, the President reads out loud the remaining consent items. The President can move to adopt the consent agenda. Hearing no objections, he/she can announce that the items on the consent agenda have been adopted. It’s not necessary to take a vote on consent agenda items.
- The secretary should include the full text of the resolutions, reports, and recommendations that were adopted as part of the consent agenda.

QUORUM:

PPW Bylaws Article V Section 7 states Quorum: A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum, and the majority of those present shall suffice on any question which is put to a vote.
J.3 Annual PPW President’s Awards Banquet

The following is the protocol and the suggested order of events for the Annual PPW Presidents Awards Banquet at the Annual Education Spring Conference. When hosting a Western District print competition, some modifications will be required.

- The Conference chair with help from other committee chairs designs and prints the President’s Award Banquet program.
- The Conference Chair provides a written timetable for the banquet agenda to all speakers and presenters involved in the presentation of the banquet.
- The Conference Chair is the primary Master of Ceremonies (MC) for the Awards Banquet.
- The banquet is the last presidential activity of the outgoing President.
- The MC is responsible to keep the banquet moving and adhere to the timetable as best as possible.
- Taking breaks or intermissions in the banquet is not advised as the banquet agenda is designed to build to a dramatic finish and will hold members attention if it is kept moving.
- The conference chair does not need to know the names of award recipients or Life member recipients when preparing the agenda.

Head Table Setup:

- The Head table should include a center table podium and have places for approximately 18 people all facing the audience.
- On right side of podium: Incoming President & guest, Vice President & guest, Secretary & guest, Treasurer & guest.
- On left side of podium: Conference chair & guest, Outgoing President & Guest, Immediate Past President & guest, Chairman of the Board & guest, PPA dignitary & guest (if present), Executive Manager and guest.
- A projector and screen are necessary for the memorial and the awards slide shows.
- Set the American flag on the left side of the stage when looking at it from the audience.
- A table for the awards is provided with extra tablecloths to cover the awards so no one can see who won trophies and awards.
- A second stand-alone podium maybe set to one side for use by the Awards Chair, the Citations Chair, and other speakers.
